George Halas McCaskey became the fourth Chairman in Chicago Bears team history on May 5, 2011, following in the footsteps of his grandfather, George Halas, father, Edward W. McCaskey and brother, Michael.

George is one of the 13 grandchildren – and namesake – of George Halas, the founder and patriarch of the Chicago Bears. Like his brothers and sisters, he grew up around the Bears. His first part-time job, at age 14, was as an office assistant at the team's headquarters in Chicago's Loop. He later worked for several summers as a ball boy at Bears training camp, calling it one of the best experiences of his life.

George has worked to carry on the storied tradition of the Bears with a yearly goal of winning the NFL Championship, uphold the integrity and values established in the previous 104 years of the club and oversee the franchise's leadership role in the Chicagoland community. One of the club's recent developments and accomplishments has been the addition of the Bears Diversity, Equity and Inclusion department within the front office. Started in 2021, the DEI department continues to form an integrated approach to all DEI efforts that will permeate throughout the club while also advancing a culture of inclusivity and belonging resulting in more equitable outcomes.

Prior to his role as the club's Chairman, George previously served as the team's senior director of ticket operations, working in the ticket office for 20 seasons, joining the Bears in 1991 as ticket manager. He has been a member of the Bears' Board of Directors since 2004.

George attended Arizona State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Broadcasting in 1978, his law degree in 1981 and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree in 2021. He passed the Illinois bar exam in 1981, but now describes himself as a "recovering lawyer." He worked in television news in Phoenix, Peoria, Tulsa and Chicago, before serving as an Assistant State's Attorney in Lee County and DeKalb County, Ill.

In his spare time, George enjoys officiating youth baseball and soccer.

Kevin Warren was named President and Chief Executive Officer of the Chicago Bears on January 12, 2023, and formally assumed the role on April 17, 2023. In his role, Warren is responsible for all business operations and football operations, while also overseeing the team's transformative stadium development project.

Warren is the first Black President and CEO in club history and the first President and CEO hired from outside the organization. Warren succeeded Ted Phillips, who served in the same capacity since February 10, 1999, becoming just the fifth President in Bears history, following George S. Halas, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., Michael McCaskey and Phillips.

Warren was honored at the 2025 NFL Women's Forum with the second-annual Buddy Teevens Forward Progress Award, presented to an individual who champions and advocates for the inclusion of women in football. NFL Women's Forum founder Sam Rapoport lauded Warren's progression and advancements, including assembling 'one of the most diverse leadership teams in sports,' since joining the Bears in 2023.

A veteran executive of 24 years in the NFL, Warren joined the Bears in 2023 after spending nearly four years as Commissioner of the Big Ten Conference. Warren served as the sixth commissioner in the 127-year history of the conference. He was the first Black leader to serve as commissioner of any Power Five conference. In his time with the Big Ten, Warren guided the conference to an expansion to 16 schools beginning in 2024, adding the University of Southern California and the University of California Los Angeles, as well as leading the negotiation of an unprecedented media rights deal that will generate over $7 billion during a seven-year period, and generates $1 billion annually. Warren also substantially increased the talent of color represented in Big Ten Conference office staff, introduced the first basketball media day that featured both men's and women's teams and players equally, created the Big Ten Equality Coalition, a nonpartisan group representing all 14 member institutions committed to combat racism, and developed a mental health and wellness cabinet.

Prior to his nearly four years at the Big Ten Conference, Warren served as the Chief Operating Officer of the Minnesota Vikings (2015-19), one of the most influential, progressive, and profitable periods in the organization's history. As COO of the Vikings, Warren oversaw all aspects of the business operations of the franchise. Warren, who spent a decade-and-a-half in Minnesota, joined the organization in 2005, and throughout his tenure, served in a variety of senior leadership capacities for the club.

While in Minnesota, Warren played a critical role in all business, financial, legal and operational aspects related to U.S. Bank Stadium and was involved in the design, construction, business, legal and operational components of the stadium which hosted Super Bowl LII. He also played a key role in the design, development and planning of Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center, the Vikings Headquarters in Eagan, Minnesota, in addition to the ancillary real estate development of Viking Lakes. Under Warren's leadership, the Vikings restructured the organization with an emphasis on promoting women to key executive positions.

Prior to working for the Vikings, he represented the Vikings' current ownership group, led by the Wilf Family, in their purchase of the team in 2005. In September of 2013, Warren was named a member of the NFL Committee on Workplace Diversity. Since joining the Bears in 2023, Warren has served as a member of the NFL's Diversity Committee.

Prior to his tenure with Minnesota, Warren served as Vice President of Player Programs & Football Legal Counsel for the St. Louis Rams from 1997-99, contributing to a franchise that secured a World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV. Additionally, Warren held the roles of Vice President of Football Administration with the Rams (2000) and Senior Vice President of Business Operations & General Counsel for the Detroit Lions (2001-03).

For undergraduate studies, Warren attended the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, playing basketball for the Quakers' 1981-82 Ivy League Championship team, before earning his undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986, where he was a member of the basketball team. Following his graduation from Grand Canyon University, Warren attended Arizona State University, earning his Master of Business Administration in 1988, before attending the University of Notre Dame Law School, earning his Juris Doctor in 1990.

In recognition of his contributions on the basketball court, Warren was inducted into the GCU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

Warren and his wife, Greta, currently reside in the Chicagoland area and have two children – daughter, Peri, and son, Powers.

Ryan Poles enters his fourth season with the Bears in 2025 after being named the club's seventh general manager in franchise history on Jan. 25, 2022.

Upon his hire, Poles embarked on an in-depth, comprehensive process to restructure the club's roster and develop all areas surrounding organizational culture and the football operation of the Chicago Bears. Poles was instrumental in striking a deal with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft, leading to a flurry of enhancements to the Bears' roster over the next two seasons. By acquiring Carolina's first-round pick, the Bears utilized the No. 1-overall selection of the 2024 NFL Draft to select quarterback Caleb Williams. Capitalizing on remaining draft capital, the Bears then selected wide receiver Rome Odunze with the ninth-overall selection, rounding out the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft with two top-10 selections. In the deal with Carolina, the Bears also acquired wide receiver DJ Moore, who has led the Bears in receiving yards during each of his two seasons in Chicago. Ahead of 2025, working with Head Coach Ben Johnson, Poles and his staff have continued to develop the roster via draft, free agency and trades.

During the 2024 season, rookie quarterback Williams set franchise rookie records across all major statistical passing categories. Williams' season included a string of 353 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, good for not only an NFL rookie record, but the fourth-longest single-season streak in NFL history. Fellow first-round rookie, Odunze, finished the season with the fourth-most receptions (61) and receiving yards (734) by a rookie in franchise history. While punter Tory Taylor, another member of the Bears 2024 draft class, set single-season franchise records in both gross (47.7) and net (41.6) punting average. On the defensive side of the ball, the Bears allowed touchdowns on just 46 percent of opponents redzone drives, the second-best rate in the NFL, while finishing top 10 in the NFL with 24 takeaways.

Poles comprised a roster in 2023 that helped lead Chicago with the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game) and finish the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game). Defensively, the Bears ranked second in the league in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (eight), putting forth a five-game span (Weeks 7-12) that the unit did not allow a single rushing touchdown. Conversely, Chicago's offense totaled the second-most first downs in the league (86). The Bears' four-win improvement from the 2022 season marked the largest year-over-year win improvement in over half a decade.

Poles and his staff oversaw a transition as the club went from from one of the oldest rosters in the NFL at the end of the 2021 season, to one of the youngest teams in the league. Holding the No. 1 pick entering the 2023 Draft, Poles struck a deal with the Carolina Panthers on March 15, which brought in wide receiver DJ Moore in addition to the No. 9-overall selection and the 61st-overall pick in 2023, as well as a 2024 first-round selection and a 2025 second-round pick. The roster additions continued in free agency as Poles and his staff acquired veteran contributors along the defensive front and among the linebacker corps to support the eventual top-ranked defense. The Bears completed their most notable in-season move ahead of the trade deadline in Week 9, acquiring defensive lineman Montez Sweat from the Washington Commanders via trade in exchange for a 2024 second-round pick.

With one of the youngest on-field rosters in 2022, the Bears posted a league-high 6,721 snaps from first-year players. Offensively, the club finished the 2022 season by setting a team rushing record with a league-best 3,019 rushing yards. Defensively, with the youngest on-field defense in the NFL, the club finished the season ranked among the top-10 in several categories: completions allowed (323, 6th), interception percentage (2.9 pct, 8th), interception yards (201, 9th) and fourth down conversions (six, 1st) to name a few. Chicago opened the 2022 season with several new pieces on the roster following a mix of trades, free agent signings and waiver claims. The Bears Week 1 roster featured 11 rookie debuts, the most by any team in the NFL in the 2022 season. The club's 2023 draft class also featured a large group with 10 total selections. The 2022-23 Bears draft classes were the first time since the start of the modern seven-round draft era that the Bears had consecutive classes with 10+ picks.

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Poles spent 13 years within the front office of the Kansas City Chiefs, helping Kansas City comprise rosters that led to two Super Bowl appearances and a World Championship with a victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV. In his 13th and final season with the Chiefs in 2021, Poles was named the club's Executive Director of Player Personnel. Initially joining the Chiefs in 2009 as a Player Personnel Assistant, Poles demonstrated his development and ascension through the ranks with Kansas City through holding the roles of College Scouting Administrator (2010-12), College Scouting Coordinator (2013-16), Director of College Scouting (2017), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2018-20), ultimately leading to serving as the Executive Director of Player Personnel in 2021, helping the Chiefs win their second-straight AFC Championship.

During his 13 years in Kansas City, the Chiefs captured seven AFC West division championships, as Poles oversaw all aspects of the college scouting across the country for the Chiefs while assisting with the pro personnel process and preparing for free agency. He also assisted General Manager Brett Veach with the coordination of the NFL Draft and overseeing the team's out-of-town area scouts. Poles was instrumental in helping the Chiefs land top draft prospects such as quarterback Patrick Mahomes and tight end Travis Kelce, who have gone on to receive multiple All-Pro recognitions. In 2021, the Chiefs tied for second in the NFL with six Pro Bowl selections in Mahomes, Kelce, wide receiver Tyreek Hill, offensive tackle Orlando Brown, defensive tackle Chris Jones and safety Tyrann Mathieu and tied for first in the NFL with seven selections in 2020. In total, from 2009-21, the Chiefs had 69 Pro Bowl selections with 28 different players.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Poles served as a Recruiting Assistant at his alma mater, Boston College (2008-09). Upon culmination of his collegiate career, Poles signed with the Chicago Bears as an undrafted free agent in 2008.

The Canandaigua, N.Y., native played offensive tackle for five seasons for Boston College (2003-07), protecting former NFL quarterback Matt Ryan and playing alongside Bears Co-Director of Player Personnel Trey Koziol. Poles was honored with the Paul Cavanaugh Award in 2007 as the student-athlete with total commitment to football both on and off the field and for his dedication to volunteerism, ethics and community. He played his prep football at Canandaigua Academy in Canandaigua, N.Y.

Poles also was named to two "40 Under 40" lists in the past five years: Ingram's Magazine in 2019 and by The Athletic in 2021. He graduated from Boston College in 2007 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Katie, have two children: Mason and Jordyn.

Ben Johnson was named Head Coach of the Chicago Bears on January 21, 2025. Johnson became the 18th full-time Head Coach in the franchise's 106-year history, arriving in Chicago after leading one of the NFL's most prolific offenses with the Detroit Lions.

Johnson most recently served as Offensive Coordinator (2022-24) in Detroit, where his 2024 unit averaged a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, helping the Lions average a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulate 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. Each of his three seasons coordinating Detroit's offense (2022-24), Johnson's group has finished in the top-five in the league in total offense each year, including a No. 2 ranking in 2024. Over the last two seasons (2023-24), no unit has averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than Johnson's offensive unit with the Detroit Lions.

Following his promotion to Offensive Coordinator in 2022, Johnson helped the Lions secure eight wins out of their last 10 matchups to close out the year. One season later (2023), Johnson's group finished No. 3 in the NFL in total offense (394.8) and No. 2 in passing offense (258.9), finishing the season in the NFC Championship Game and as a finalist for AP NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. With the aid of Johnson's leadership of the offense, Detroit accumulated a franchise-record 15 regular-season wins in 2024, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in both total offense (409.5) and passing offense (263.3) while owning the third-best red-zone touchdown percentage (69.4 pct.) and fourth-best third-down conversion rate (47.6) in the league. Johnson spent six total seasons with the Lions, starting in 2019 in an Offensive Quality Control capacity, before being elevated to Tight Ends Coach in 2020, holding that role for two seasons. In his first seasons coaching the tight ends, Johnson's tutelage helped second-year TE T.J. Hockenson earn his first-career Pro Bowl selection after ranking top-five in the league in receiving yards (third), receiving first downs (third) and receptions (fourth) among tight ends.

Prior to Detroit, Johnson served seven seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins working under three different head coaches. Over his seven years in Miami, Johnson worked in the capacities of Offensive Assistant (2012), Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), Tight Ends Coach (2015), Assistant Wide Receivers Coach (2016-17) and Wide Receivers Coach (2018).

Working with the Dolphins wide receivers, Johnson aided a group that featured Pro Bowl WR Jarvis Landry who set a franchise-record with an NFL-best 112 receptions in 2017, one season after helping Miami secure 10 wins and reach the postseason. As Wide Receivers Coach in 2018, Johnson helped guide WR Albert Wilson to accumulate an average of 12.9 yards after catch, the second-highest rate among all NFL players.

Prior to his time with the wide receivers, Johnson served as Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), before being promoted to Tight Ends Coach following staff realignment in 2015. In 2014, QB Ryan Tannehill became just the second Dolphins passer to throw for 4,000 yards in a single season. Starting with the Dolphins as an Offensive Assistant in 2012, Johnson aided a unit that ranked fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15).

Johnson entered the coaching ranks as a Graduate Assistant at Boston College (2009-10), spending three years in Chestnut Hill, including the 2011 season as Tight Ends Coach.

A native of Asheville, N.C., Johnson was a walk-on quarterback at the University of North Carolina, earning degrees in mathematics and computer science. Johnson and his wife, Jessica, have three children – Emory, Kennedy and Halle.

THE REAL MVP?

The AED That Brings Someone Back.

Sudden Cardiac Arrest (SCA) can happen anytime, anywhere — on the field, at work, in school, at the gym, or even at the park. When every second counts, being prepared can save a life.

Defibtech's Lifeline AEDs (Automated External Defibrillators) are designed for moments like these. They are easy to recognize and use, are rugged, allowing for use in many environments, are affordable and simple to maintain. Having an AED on-site means you're not just prepared — you're empowered to make a life-saving difference.

Protect your team — employees, students, passengers, or the general public — with a Lifeline AED today!

Coldwell Banker Realty

As a mother of two, my passion for real estate was born from personal experience. Navigating the home-buying process opened my eyes to the many challenges faced by individuals—especially those in lower- and middle-income communities—who are striving to secure safe, affordable housing. I experienced firsthand the lack of accessible information, resources, and support available to hardworking families like mine.

This journey sparked a deep desire in me to be part of the solution. I became committed to sharing what I've learned and giving back to my community through education, financial literacy, credit repair, and homeownership seminars. My mission is to build a network of like-minded individuals who understand the importance of homeownership—not just as a personal milestone, but as a tool for community revitalization and generational wealth.

I'm especially passionate about reaching single parents—both men and women—who may feel overwhelmed or under-informed. I want to inspire them, equip them with knowledge, and show them that homeownership is not only possible, but empowering. Everyone deserves the opportunity to live in a safe, stable home, and I'm here to help make that a reality.

Racing, fluttering heartbeat?

Atrial fibrillation (AFib) is a quivering or irregular heartbeat that can lead to blood clots, stroke, heart failure, and other heart-related complications.

Know your options. Stay in the game.

Whether you're facing AFib yourself or supporting a loved one, knowing your options is your best play. Medication can often be the first line of defense against AFib, but it may not be the best fit for everyone.

Cardiac catheter ablation can be transformative for patients looking to improve or eliminate symptoms of AFib.

4x More effective

Catheter ablation can be 4x more effective than antiarrhythmic medication alone at preventing the return of the irregular heart rhythm associated with AFib.^{1*}

Learn more and find a specialist today at www.GetSmartAboutAFib.com

Don't wait. Ask your doctor about catheter ablation, a minimally invasive technique used to treat AFib without major surgery.²⁻⁵

*Results reported after 9 months for patients with paroxysmal AFib who had failed 1 antiarrhythmic medication in randomized trial.

Catheter Ablation vs. Medical Treatment in Patients With Atrial Fibrillation. Cureus. 2020;12(8):e9700. Published 2020 Aug 12. doi:10.7759/cureus.9700

As with any medical treatment, individual results may vary. Only a cardiologist or electrophysiologist can determine whether ablation is an appropriate course of treatment. There are potential risks including bleeding, swelling or bruising at the catheter insertion site, and infection. More serious complications are rare, which can include damage to the heart or blood vessels; blood clots (which may lead to stroke); heart attack, or death. These risks need to be discussed with your doctor and recovery takes time. The success of this procedure depends on many factors, including your physical condition and your body's ability to tolerate the procedure. Use care in the selection of your doctors and hospital, based on their skill and experience.

The THERMOCOOL SMARTTOUCH™ SF Catheter is indicated for drug refractory recurrent symptomatic persistent atrial fibrillation (AF) (continuous AF ≥ 7 days but < 1 year), refractory or intolerant to at least 1 Class I or III AAD, when used with the CARTO™ 3 System. Important information: Prior to use, refer to the instructions for use supplied with this device for indications, contraindications, side effects, warnings and precautions. Caution: US law restricts this device to sale by or on the order of a physician.

The mission of Caleb Cares is to prevent bullying, shine a spotlight on mental health and empower young people.

Caleb Cares envisions a world where mental health is as important as our physical health. A world where our youth are empowered to reach their full potential. A world where young people thrive in school, free from bullying, filled with compassion, kindness and empathy.

"I created Caleb Cares for those kids who are suffering because they don't fit in. Fitting in means you're not standing out. Greatness is formed in our differences. What makes you different today will propel you tomorrow."

VETERANS

PROFESSIONAL ATHLETES

By merging vets and athletes, we create an environment where these warriors can share each other's strength and experience, build a stronger foundation for more fulfilling lives, and positively influence their new team, families and communities.

WHO WE ARE

MVP is a community that empowers and connects our members through various events, communication, and trusted resources. Our members are provided with an ecosystem of support so they are never alone!

WHAT WE DO

We reduce homelessness, suicide, improve health and wellness, and much more! Veterans and Athletes come together weekly for a formal physical training and peer to peer support session called, "The Huddle," at no cost to them! This allows them to rebuild themselves mentally, physically, emotionally.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

We need your help to continue this mission! MVP has many sponsors and partners that help us operate and raise funds allowing our charity, a 501(c)3, to provide services and resources to enrich our members lives.

FIND AN MVP LOCATION NEAR YOU OR HELP US SET UP A NEW COMMUNITY CHAPTER IN YOUR AREA!

I: Guard Tom Thayer played in 37 regular-season and postseason pro football games in a 12-month span, joining the Bears in June 1985 after spending the spring playing in the USFL with the Arizona Outlaws. After Arizona's last game, Thayer drove from Phoenix to Platteville, Wis., to begin training camp with the Bears.

II: The Bears spent three days during the first of two weeks between the NFC Championship Game and Super Bowl practicing indoors at the University of Illinois in Champaign.

III: The Bears taped "The Super Bowl Shuffle" at the Park West in Chicago on Tuesday, Dec. 3, hours after landing in Chicago following their only loss of the season, a 38-24 defeat on Monday Night Football in Miami. Walter Payton and Jim McMahon taped their portions later via a green screen in a racquetball court at Halas Hall. "The Super Bowl Shuffle" sold more than half a million copies and was nominated for a Grammy Award.

IV: The Bears opened the season 12-0, but they were nearly 0-1. They trailed the Buccaneers 28-17 at halftime of their season opener at Soldier Field before rallying for a 38-28 victory. Early in the second half, Leslie Frazier intercepted a pass that was deflected by Richard Dent and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to fuel the comeback.

V: After William Perry rushed for two touchdowns and caught a TD pass during the regular season, the Bears gave the Fridge a chance to throw a touchdown pass in the Super Bowl. On second-and-goal from the 5 late in the first quarter, Perry took a handoff from Jim McMahon and rolled to his right. But seeing that tight end Emery Moorehead was well covered in the end zone, Perry wisely pulled down the ball and was tackled for a one-yard loss.

VI: Running back Tony Collins led the Patriots in rushing in Super Bowl XX with four yards on three carries. The Bears held New England to seven yards on the ground, a Super Bowl record that still stands.

VII: Tony Eason became the first starting quarterback in Super Bowl history who didn't complete a pass. He was replaced by veteran Steve Grogan after going 0-of-6 with three sacks.

VIII: The '85 Bears sent a franchise-record nine players to the Pro Bowl in Jimbo Covert, Richard Dent, Dave Duerson, Dan Hampton, Jay Hilgenberg, Jim McMahon, Walter Payton, Mike Singletary and Otis Wilson. Because they flew directly from New Orleans to Hawaii, the Bears' Pro Bowlers were unable to participate in the team's championship parade in Chicago.

IX: Three members of the 1985 Bears defense became NFL head coaches: Linebackers Ron Rivera and Mike Singletary and cornerback Leslie Frazier. The total increases to four if you count Jeff Fisher, who spent the '85 season as a pseudo assistant under defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan while on injured reserve.

X: In Super Bowl XX, the Patriots gained positive yards on only one of their first 16 plays, a 3-yard run by Craig James. The 15 plays that failed to produce positive yards consisted of three sacks, seven incomplete passes and five runs for zero or negative yards.

XI: Four members of the 1985 Bears later played for the arch rival Green Bay Packers: Quarterbacks Jim McMahon (1995-96) and Mike Tomczak (1991), defensive tackle Steve McMichael (1994) and linebacker Jim Morrissey (1993). McMahon won a Super Bowl ring with Green Bay in 1996 as Brett Favre's backup but wore his Bears jersey to the White House when the Packers were honored by President Bill Clinton.

XII: Seven starters on the 1985 Super Bowl championship team were selected by the Bears in the 1983 NFL Draft: Tackle Jimbo Covert and receiver Willie Gault in the first round, cornerback Mike Richardson in the second, safety Dave Duerson in the third, guard Tom Thayer in the fourth, and defensive end Richard Dent and guard Mark Bortz in the eighth.

XIII: The Patriots took the quickest lead in Super Bowl history on Tony Franklin's 36-yard field goal with just 1:19 elapsed. The kick came after New England had recovered a Walter Payton fumble on the second play of the game. Ironically, the Bears broke the record 21 years later when Devin Hester returned the opening kickoff of Super Bowl XLI for a touchdown.

XIV: Coordinator Buddy Ryan named his famous "46" defense after the jersey number worn by hard-hitting safety Doug Plank. But Plank's eight-year career with the Bears ended in 1982 and no member of the 1985 championship team wore No. 46.

XV: Cornerback Leslie Frazier was just entering his prime in 1985, when the 26-year-old led the Bears with six interceptions. But Super Bowl XX would be the last game of Frazier's career; he blew out his left knee after taking a handoff from Keith Ortego on a punt return late in the second quarter. As defensive backs coach with the Colts in 2006, Frazier won a second ring when Indianapolis defeated the Bears in Super Bowl XLI.

XVI: During a media session a few days before the Super Bowl, William Perry told reporters that he had declined an offer to star in a movie with singer Cyndi Lauper. The script called for Lauper to play a wrestler and the Fridge to be her bodyguard.

XVII: While the Patriots had a nightly curfew in New Orleans, Bears players didn't have to be in their hotel rooms by a certain time until the night before the Super Bowl. "We intend to party a bit," defensive lineman Dan Hampton said upon arriving in town. "That's part of the reward of getting here. We're going to come down here, have fun and try to win a football game."

XVIII: Bears defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan had already won a Super Bowl ring 16 years earlier as defensive line coach with the New York Jets, who shocked the heavily-favored Baltimore Colts behind brash quarterback "Broadway" Joe Namath in Super Bowl III.

XIX: The '85 Bears were so popular that the team's offensive line and key reserves had their own posters entitled "The Black and Blues Brothers" and "Second to None," respectively.

XX: Determined to get into the game, Bears third-string quarterback Mike Tomczak convinced coaches to let him cover a kickoff late in the contest—and he promptly drew a 15-yard facemask penalty.

ROAD TO CANTON: STEVE MCMICHAEL

BY LARRY MAYER

SPECIAL BOND BETWEEN HAMPTON, MCMICHAEL REMAINS STRONG

They played for rival colleges in the 1970s in the powerful Southwest Conference, the preeminent football conference in the nation at the time. But defensive tackles Dan Hampton and Steve "Mongo" McMichael formed a close bond almost immediately after becoming Bears teammates.

The fourth overall pick in the 1979 draft out of Arkansas, Hampton was entering his third NFL season in 1981 when defensive line coach Dale Haupt sent him to O'Hare Airport to pick up McMichael, a Texas product who had just been signed by the Bears after spending his rookie year with the Patriots.

"It was a little awkward at first," Hampton told ChicagoBears.com, recalling their first car ride together. "But it didn't take long. Once he put on some pads and a helmet and he went out and started stomping on folks, we were like, 'Hey, he's one of us,' and we became fast friends."

Their friendship grew in large part because they shared so much in common. The two played the same position with identical passion and ferocity, hailed from the same part of the country and had both suffered heartbreaking losses; Hampton's father passed away due to pancreatic cancer when the former Bears star was 13, while McMichael lost his stepfather when the lineman was a freshman at Texas.

"In the '80s, it was the era of 'Urban Cowboy,'" Hampton said. "Waylon [Jennings] and Willie [Nelson] and all those country music guys were like the rave, and it's kind of a southern thing that good ole' boys would hang out. Well, Mongo and I kind of formed a partnership that started when [the Bears] picked him up.

"We were just big, gregarious, southern, hell-raising defensive linemen. It was just a fait accompli that we'd become running buddies."

As Bears teammates for 10 seasons from 1981-90, the running buddies wreaked havoc on and off the field. They were key contributors on a 1985 Super Bowl XX championship defense that's widely considered the best in NFL history. And they celebrated their accomplishments at local establishments with just as much flair in an era that fortunately didn't have cell phones capturing every indiscretion.

Hampton and McMichael vacationed together—at the Pro Bowl in Hawaii and an annual charity golf outing in Austin, Texas. Hampton recalled they'd also "go to Arkansas and hang out with my cowboy buddies."

"We were thick as thieves in so many different ways for so long," Hampton said.

There's no doubt that the close friendship between the two Bears defensive tackles fueled their success on the field.

"I played on the left side of him for 10 years," Hampton said. "Nobody knew him better. Nobody understood how we needed to play as a tandem better."

Their cohesiveness helped the defense successfully operate a system installed by coordinator Buddy Ryan that featured AFCs, which stood for "automatic fronts and coverage." During the week in practice, defenders were taught where and how to line up based on the formation the offense was in. Those assignments changed when the offense would shift or put players in motion before the snap.

"Dan and Steve kind of had a symbiotic relationship, and it just makes it so much easier," said Gary Fencik, a Bears safety from 1976-87. "They're playing right next to one another, so it's really important that they are coordinated on their stunts and what they're trying to do. You don't have a good defense without pressure put up front, and Steve and Dan certainly would see to that."

Hampton's most memorable on-field moment with McMichael occurred in a 26-10 win over the 49ers Oct. 13, 1985, in San Francisco. The victory came after the Bears had dropped the 1984 NFC Championship Game to the 49ers 23-0 at the same site.

"We wanted to win that game for so many different reasons," Hampton said. "The 49ers were like Dracula; you had to put a stake in their heart. They could come back, they were explosive."

"Steve made a wonderful play on a draw play, where he spun off [center] Randy Cross and hit [running back] Roger Craig in the backfield. You could tell that was the play that put a stake in the heart of the 49ers. Steve had this wicked blanking grin. He knew."

It was late in the third quarter and after that they just rolled over."

Hampton loved playing with McMichael because they shared the same values. Both were often required to occupy blockers to free up linebackers Mike Singletary and Wilber Marshall to make tackles.

"Steve was a total consummate team-first guy," Hampton said. "When you're doing it, by God you appreciate somebody else that's doing it, and he was fantastic at it."

Hampton laughs when recalling some of his off-the-field antics with McMichael. The two once attended a Bears-sponsored event at a north suburban pizzeria. They were on their best behavior because Hampton's mom had accompanied them.

At least that was the case until a teammate chided McMichael, saying: "Oh look, Mongo being good tonight."

"There was a pitcher of beer on the table, and Mongo picked it up and started drinking from it," Hampton said. "It was coming out of both sides of his mouth and going down his shirt. My mom was like, 'oh no.' Everybody was laughing. He was a madman, he really was."

Fencik recalled attending a birthday party for Bears defensive end Mike Hartenstine with Hampton and McMichael during Mike Ditka's first season as coach in 1982. Fencik was the only non-defensive lineman at the gathering.

"we were just big, gregarious, southern, hell-raising defensive linemen. it was just a fait accompli that we'd become running buddies." - dan hampton

"That was a long night," Fencik said. "We missed curfew. During stretching the next morning, Ditka had the whole defensive line do up-downs until they were going to puke. But they didn't squeal on me. They didn't say, 'Well, Fencik was with us, too.' So I guess I had an IOU on that one for quite a while."

Hampton and McMichael remained close after retiring from the NFL. They played in the Chicago 6 band together along with former Bears linebacker Otis Wilson. There were times, on special nights, that the group performed a song so harmoniously that they recaptured the magic they had created on the football field.

"When the song was over, he'd look at me and I'd look at him and it was almost like 30 years prior when we would make a big play," Hampton said.

Fast forward to April 2021 when McMichael revealed the devastating news that he was suffering from ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis), a neurodegenerative neuromuscular disease that results in the progressive loss of motor neurons that control voluntary muscles. Sadly, McMichael is now confined to his bed, unable to eat, speak or move.

Hampton had never been around someone suffering from ALS and was distraught when McMichael started losing the use of his arms.

"I was at his house putting up a wheelchair ramp and he couldn't hit the garage door opener button," Hampton said. "He couldn't pick up his arms. I drove home and I just sat there in a chair for an hour thinking. It's incredibly devastating."

Hampton has been inspired by how McMichael has dealt with the disease and was thrilled last month when his close friend was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2024. McMichael was surrounded by those closest to him in his bedroom when the announcement was made on the NFL Honors TV show. About 50 people gathered at McMichael's suburban Chicago home for a watch party to celebrate the occasion.

Hampton, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2002, is excited that his longtime friend is joining him in Canton, Ohio.

"[Cowboys Hall of Famer] Randy White said this best," Hampton said. "He said in an abstract way, we're all insecure as a football player, as an athlete because you know what is expected and you know what you're capable of. But closing the deal every day in practice, every day in a game, it takes a lot of willpower, a lot of focus, all those different things. And Steve was able to focus and summon his willpower more than anyone I ever played with."

THERE'S MORE TO MCMICHAEL THAN 'MONGO' PERSONA

During his Hall of Fame career with the Bears, Steve McMichael displayed the charisma of a rockstar and the savagery of a wild animal. A true Monster of the Midway, the native Texan hunted rattlesnakes in the offseason and quarterbacks on Sunday afternoons and Monday nights.

McMichael's persona earned him two fitting nicknames during his playing days in Chicago: "Mongo," after the character played by Alex Karras in the classic movie "Blazing Saddles," and "Ming the Merciless," a ruthless tyrant who rules the planet Mongo in Flash Gordon comic books.

McMichael certainly embraced being Mongo—a beer-swilling, hell-raising, intimidating force of nature on and off the field. He continued to lean into that personality after retiring from football and becoming a professional wrestler. But those closest to him then and now know that there's so much more to the former All-Pro defensive tackle.

"What a lot of people don't know about Steve is that he's a very intelligent, very bright guy," said Hall of Fame middle linebacker Mike Singletary, McMichael's Bears teammate from 1981-92. "I sat down and talked to Steve about a number of things, and I was blown away by his ability to articulate any subject matter. I would say: 'Steve, why don't you talk like this all the time?' He'd say: 'Because I'm a football player!'"

Bears Hall of Fame defensive lineman Dan Hampton shares a similar perspective. The two have been close friends since becoming teammates in 1981.

"Steve's mother was a schoolteacher," Hampton said. "The whole 'Mongo' thing, we laughed about it and he ran with it, but Steve was very, very smart—not only in football IQ, but just in every day parlance."

McMichael is known for his sense of humor, but there was nothing funny about the way he battled in the trenches.

"While Steve had this bombastic personality, he was a very serious player on the field," said former Bears safety Gary Fencik, McMichael's teammate from 1981-87. "There wasn't a lot of what you might think he'd be saying or doing. He was a real pro, and he took great pride in being on a great defense."

REFLECTING ON STEVE MCMICHAEL'S PRO WRESTLING CAREER

Pro wrestling legend Ric Flair roars with laughter recalling when he had Steve McMichael travel to Florida for a grand opening of a Gold's Gym that Flair owned.

"I had Rose Limousine pick him up," Flair said last week during a sit-down interview at Halas Hall. "One of the owners walks into the gym the next day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and says, 'Do you have any idea when your friend is going to bring my limousine back?' He never went back to his hotel."

Flair discussing McMichael's penchant to party is like Mike Ditka lauding someone else's mustache. Nicknamed the "Nature Boy" in honor of wrestling legend Buddy Rogers, Flair famously describes himself as a "stylin', profilin', limousine riding, jet flying, kiss-stealin', wheelin' and dealin' son of a gun." One of the most prolific pro

"what a lot of people don't know about steve is that he's a very intelligent, very bright guy." - bears hall of fame middle linebacker mike singletary wrestlers of all time, Flair thought he was the world's No. 1 partner—until he spent time with McMichael.

"He's one of the nicest people I've ever met in my life, and wilder than me—and that's saying a lot," Flair said. "Steve used to say to me, 'I've got more money than I've got time. What do you want to do tonight?' I never slept, but he slept less."

That was especially true on one occasion.

"The wildest night I've ever spent in my life was with Lawrence Taylor and Mongo in Las Vegas on Lawrence Taylor's birthday," Flair said. "I can tell you in all my years of wrestling I have never had a night out like that."

Flair politely declined to provide details, shaking his head with a huge smile on his face. It's no doubt a story that Flair recounts during his regular visits to see McMichael, who is bedridden due to the ravages of ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis).

The highlight of McMichael's time as a pro wrestler from 1995-99 was when he teamed with Flair as part of the famed "Four Horsemen" in World Championship Wrestling (WCW) in 1996-97.

"He was just a great guy to be with, a lot of personality, fun, congenial, got along with everybody," Flair said. "You'd never know that he was anything special—which he was to me and to any football fan—but he was just a regular guy."

"He liked wrestling, he wanted to do it and he caught on really quick. If you're not afraid to try something, which he wasn't, and if you're a good athlete, it's not that hard to pick up. And obviously he was used to the physicality his whole life, so the physicality didn't bother him at all."

McMichael's first foray into pro wrestling came with the World Wrestling Federation (WWF), which is now known as World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE) in 1995—the year after he retired from the NFL. During an episode of Monday Night Raw, McMichael served as a commentator alongside WWE honcho Vince McMahon and tangled with wrestler Kama Mustafa. McMichael later appeared ringside at WrestleMania XI during a match between Taylor, the New York Giants Hall of Fame linebacker, and wrestler Bam Bam Bigelow.

Longtime Bears teammate Tom Thayer remembers that McMichael's indoctrination into pro wrestling was a painful one.

"He went down to a wrestling school in Atlanta and the day he got back we went out to dinner," Thayer said. "He said, 'Tommy, take a look at this,' and he lifted up his shirt. He was badly bruised from his waist to just below his shoulder because he was learning to bounce off the turnbuckle and bounce off the ropes."

Thayer attended four or five of McMichael's wrestling shows.

"I always got to go back into the locker room, and I was always amazed at how 'Ming' held court with all the wrestlers," Thayer said. "It didn't take him a while to get acclimated to the room. Ming was always a dominant alpha male in a football locker room, and it carried over because he went in there with plenty of street cred with his look and his physique and what he was able to accomplish in the NFL. It wasn't like a guy trying to climb the ladder. Ming walked in there with a lot of cachet."

McMichael signed with WCW in 1995, working as a commentator and wrestler before joining the Four Horsemen in 1996. His first singles match came against wrestler Joe Gomez at "Bash at the Beach" July 7, 1996, in Florida.

Gomez became close friends with McMichael and always accompanied Flair during his visits to McMichael's home in suburban Chicago.

"No matter how much it hurts me, and I cry my eyes out—Ric and I both are very emotional—but if you could make him forget the situation for 10 minutes, that's the least we could do," Gomez said. "It kills me. But then I always think, 'What's it like for him?'"

During their most recent trip last week, McMichael was in a jovial mood.

"It was the first time Ric and I didn't break down crying because [McMichael] was too upbeat and happy," Gomez said.

Gomez, who played football at the University of Louisville, knew how accomplished McMichael was before the two even met.

"I remember watching the '85 Bears in college at Louisville dismantle the Patriots and I was like, 'Wow,'" Gomez said. "And to think 10 years later I'd be wrestling Mongo in his first singles match."

Gomez feels that the same attributes that made McMichael a Hall of Fame defensive tackle enabled him to fit in perfectly as a pro wrestler.

"He was fearless, he was colorful, larger than life and just loved it," Gomez said. "He was having fun. It's what made him one of the greatest linemen of all time."

Flair and Gomez are both planning to attend McMichael's Hall of Fame induction ceremony Aug. 3 in Canton, Ohio. They hope that the former Bears defensive tackle is able to make the trip, and if he is, they envision a powerful moment akin to the "Never Give Up" speech that former North Carolina State coach Jim Valvano delivered in 1993 when he was dying of cancer.

"It's going to be a huge deal," Flair said. "They're going to have a hell of a party and Mongo's going to be right in the middle of it. He's an McMichael's game-saving takeaway sparked a series of improbable developments that enabled the Bears to rally for a miraculous 19-13 overtime victory and improve to 4-0.

"There were a lot of key moments late in the game, and none of them happen without Steve," Trace Armstrong, a Bears defensive end who played in that contest, told ChicagoBears.com. "It was just the type of player he was. In that era, Steve was playing at an unbelievably high level; as well as any inside guy in all of football."

Things looked bleak for the Bears after an unnecessary roughness penalty on linebacker Ron Cox had given the Jets a first down with 2:00 remaining. Before taking a commercial break, ABC play-by-play announcer Al Michaels remarked: "The New York Jets, barring disaster, will have a very happy plane ride back to Gotham."

"he's one of the nicest people i've ever met in my life, and wilder than me—and that's saying a lot." — ric flair unforgettable personality. If he makes it to Canton, I'm looking for like a 'Jimmy V' reaction if they get him up on that stage."

"Mongo squeezed every second out of life," Gomez said. "He's one of those special people ... He really did everything, and he did it in Mongo style."

SIGNATURE PLAY OF STEVE MCMICHAEL'S CAREER

Trailing the New York Jets 13-6 late in a Week 4 Monday night game Sept. 23, 1991, the Bears were out of timeouts—and hope—when defensive tackle Steve McMichael produced a remarkable play.

Many disappointed fans had already exited Soldier Field when Jets running back Blair Thomas took a handoff and headed up the middle. McMichael stood his ground in the hole, shed right guard Dwayne White and not only ripped the ball away from Thomas, but also recovered the fumble with 1:54 to play.

Three decades later, former teammates still marvel about McMichael's heroics.

"There's only one guy on the planet that could have done that," Tom Waddle, a Bears receiver who caught eight passes for 102 yards in that memorable game, told ChicagoBears.com. "It was a Superman play."

But McMichael changed that narrative on the very next play.

"It was unbelievable," Bears Hall of Fame middle linebacker Mike Singletary said after the game. "We talked about it in the huddle: 'Hold 'em up, strip the ball, we've got to make the play.' And the next play it happened. [McMichael] just took the ball out. That's what we had to have."

"At that point you know you've got to get a turnover," Armstrong said. "We talked about attacking the football and trying to force a fumble. I'm pretty sure Steve stunted out of his gap. I remember him stripping the ball and he literally saved that game and gave us another chance."

After snatching the ball from Thomas, McMichael stormed off the field and slammed his helmet to the ground in celebration.

As the replay was shown, color commentator Dan Dierdorf said: "That's why some guys go to the Pro Bowl and some guys go home." When a camera cut to McMichael sitting on the bench, analyst Frank Gifford noted: "That's blood all over the thigh pad of McMichael, but I don't believe it's his."

The Bears eventually converted McMichael's takeaway into a

"it was just the type of player he was. in that era, steve was playing at an unbelievably high level; as well as any inside guy in all of football."

— former teammate trace armstrong game-tying score, but it wasn't easy. It took them 11 plays and all 1:54 that remained on the clock to advance 36 yards and knot the game 13-13.

The game-tying touchdown came on a 5-yard pass from Jim Harbaugh to running back Neal Anderson on fourth-and-goal as time expired. With the clock running after Harbaugh's short scramble on third-and-goal, the Bears quarterback calmly got the offense lined up and received the shotgun snap with :03 to play.

The drive was highlighted by Waddle's 15-yard reception on third-and-19. It appeared that Harbaugh's pass in the right flat would be intercepted by Jets cornerback James Hasty, who was in front of Waddle when the pass was thrown. But the Bears receiver deftly shouldered Hasty aside and came back to snare the ball.

"James Hasty basically had run the route for me and was undercutting it," Waddle said. "I knew Jim was going to come to me and I thought, 'if all else fails I've got to get in front of him to knock it down' because I knew when I was running the route that it wasn't the best route for the coverage they were playing. I don't think Hasty was expecting me to jump in front of him."

After the play, which was near the Jets sideline, Waddle heard New York's defensive coordinator, future NFL head coach Pete Carroll, shout at him, "Are you kidding me?"

"Pete was chirping at me—not in a bad way—all game long," Waddle said. "He was just like, 'stop, stop doing that, anytime you want to stop, it's good by us.'"

After both teams punted on their first possessions in overtime, the Jets were in position to win the game when a roughing-the-passer penalty on Singletary moved the ball to the Bears' 11. With Thomas' fumble no doubt still fresh in his mind, Jets coach Bruce Coslet sent the field-goal unit onto the field on first down.

As kicker Pat Leahy set up for a 28-yard attempt, Dierdorf said: "He better make this or Bruce Coslet has made the worst call I've ever seen."

The Bears followed by marching from their own 20 to the Jets' 23. With kicker Kevin Butler warming up on the sideline for a potential game-winning field goal, Harbaugh rolled to his right and hit tight end Cap Boso across the middle.

With a defender draped on his back, Boso dove across the goal line for an apparent game-winning touchdown. Landing face first on the field, he celebrated with a giant clump of grass and dirt stuck in his facemask.

After a replay review, however, it was ruled that Boso was down six inches short of the goal line. Most of the Jets had already reached their locker room and Harbaugh was being interviewed by local sportscaster Tim Weigel.

Once all the players returned to the field, Harbaugh took the next snap and dove into the end zone for the game-winning TD. Of course, it didn't become official until another replay review confirmed the call.

"This is the wildest ending I have ever seen," Dierdorf said.

Signing off the broadcast, McMichael described what he had just witnessed as a "scintillating, improbable, nearly impossible victory" by the Bears.

Thanks to McMichael, it was all that and more.

JARRETT PAYTON REFLECTS ON LIFELONG FRIENDSHIP WITH STEVE MCMICHAEL

With bulging biceps, a booming voice and a relentless take-no-prisoners mentality, Steve McMichael was an intimidating force on the football field.

So just imagine what it was like for a toddler to encounter the 6-2, 270-pound Bears defensive tackle—as Jarrett Payton did in the mid-1980s. The son of legendary running back Walter Payton recalls being playfully chased by McMichael and other players around the locker room.

"I was afraid of Steve when I was younger because he was so big and he was so loud," Jarrett told ChicagoBears.com. "I was still in pull up diapers back then. I would rip up hot chocolate packets and throw them around Halas Hall. Him and some of the guys would be running after me trying to catch me."

Their relationship only grew from there. McMichael kept in close contact with Jarrett after his father tragically passed away due to bile duct cancer in 1999 and served as Jarrett's head coach with the Chicago Slaughter of the Indoor Football League in 2010. McMichael later helped convince Jarrett to become a sportscaster, a job he's held with WGN-TV since 2015.

"My fondest memories really come later in life," Jarrett said, "being a grownup and spending time with him and listening to him talk, being able to be coached by him but also hearing his stories and all his 'Mongo-isms.' And just how for the exterior and how everybody looked at him, the nickname Mongo, to get a chance to really know him and to see what was inside, he was a huge teddy bear."

Jarrett witnessed that softer side of McMichael after suffering a pulled hamstring during a Slaughter game in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. The injury ended Jarrett's six-year pro football career, which included stints in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans, NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals and the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes and Toronto Argonauts.

"I was in the training room and the doctor was telling me, 'I don't think you can go back out there,'" Jarrett said. "I remember saying, 'It's done. It's over. This is it.' I'm sitting on a table and Steve's back there crying; balling his eyes out because he knew that was the end for me and he knew what that moment feels like. I'll never forget seeing him cry because I was used to seeing him smile and make everybody laugh. I'd never seen him cry. That was one of those moments that will stay in my memory forever."

Another one of those moments no doubt will come Aug. 3 when Jarrett serves as McMichael's official presenter at the Hall of Fame's induction ceremony in Canton.

"It's a special honor for me because there are so many people out there that have had an impact on Steve's life, and he could have chosen anybody," Jarrett said. "He felt like there was a strong connection between the two of us. He knew and trusted me with this honor. I'm just floored by that because the man is bigger than life and I think the only thing bigger than his personality is his heart.

"I'm just grateful for the time I've had to spend with him, especially in 2010 when I played for him on the Slaughter. That was a crucial moment in my life because I knew that my football career was almost over and that this was an opportunity for me to choose the path that I wanted to walk in life. I didn't know what I wanted to do and he's a big reason why I'm in the media business. He pushed me to do this. He pushed me to not be afraid and try this thing out and just go for it."

As a 12-year-old in 1993, Jarrett presented his father for induction into the Hall of Fame. Thirty-one years later he was thrilled to receive a call from McMichael's wife, Misty McMichael, asking if he'd like to present Mongo for enshrinement.

"It's just appropriate because Jarrett inducted his father and Steve was like a pseudo father to him when Walter passed," Misty said. "Steve's always looking out for his kids, and he's honoring Walter in the process. I called [Jarrett] and he said he got chills and started crying because that's like his second father. He's very touched by it, and so are we. We just know it's the perfect match."

Back when he presented his father, Jarrett delivered his speech live in front of a large crowd. The Hall of Fame now pre-tapes the presenters and plays an edited version of their remarks during the induction ceremony. Jarrett taped his segment a few weeks ago at his suburban Chicago home.

"It's totally different sitting on stage to being in the comfort of your own home in a controlled environment," he said. "I didn't have to worry about a crowd, and this time I got a chance to really get my feelings out."

Jarrett anticipated that he was going to cry during the taping, but he never did.

"I thought there was going to be this moment where I was going to break down," he said. "But I just felt so happy for him and his family. I know what this means to him. I knew what it meant to my dad. He wanted to win a Super Bowl, he wanted to be the NFL's all-time leading rusher and he wanted to be among all the greats [in the Hall of Fame]. That's what drove him, and I feel like that's what drove Steve as well.

"He wanted to be among the greats that played the game because the game meant so much to him. I know that this honor means the world to him and his family, and I was just filled with joy so there was no need to cry."

The parallels between McMichael and Payton are uncanny. Teammates on the famed 1985 Super Bowl XX champion Bears, they were indestructible warriors on the football field who rank 1-2 in consecutive games played in franchise history, McMichael with 191 and Payton with 186. Both also possessed a wickedly funny sense of humor, a fierce devotion to their craft and a sincere appreciation for their fans.

"It's funny because my dad was one of those guys who really got along with everyone and Steve is the same," Jarrett said. "I think the respect they both had for each other was a big part of their friendship. Their attention to detail, how they prepared for games, how they played the game, I think that's what brought them together—but it was also their ability to make everyone around them feel special. They always gave people time and always made sure that every autograph was signed."

Unfortunately, the two Bears legends are also inextricably linked due to both contracting incurable debilitating diseases. Payton was diagnosed with primary sclerosing cholangitis in 1998 and passed away a year later, while McMichael revealed in 2021 that he is suffering from ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis).

"I look at the correlation between both lives and what Steve's battling right now and how he's battled to stay alive," Jarrett said. "There's something to say about my dad and Steve and the guys that played on that '85 team and how tough they were. I saw my dad battle trying to stay alive and I'm watching Steve do the exact same thing."

McMichael played 13 seasons with the Bears from 1981-93. He ranks second in team history with 92.5 sacks, helped the team win six NFC Central Division titles and was an instrumental part of the 1985 Super Bowl XX championship defense that many consider to be the best in NFL history. He joined the Bears after being waived by the Patriots following one season in New England and ultimately blossomed into a Hall of Famer in coordinator Buddy Ryan's revolutionary "46" defense.

"Anytime that people gave up on him, he found a way to prove them wrong," Jarrett said. "Being able to use his strength and quickness—which to me were two of his greatest attributes—he was able to find his niche, and he played his role perfectly; to help what to me is the greatest football team that ever played and the greatest defense to ever step on the field. What he did on the football field speaks for itself; just look at his numbers.

"Off the field, he's a great friend. When you need someone in your corner, to have your back, Steve has always been there for me. It's knowing that he's there for you, that you can trust him and he will do anything for you.

"That's probably his greatest quality, that you can trust him. You need guys like that on your football team and you need people like that in your life, that are going to push you but also you know that they have your back as well. That's who Steve McMichael is as a person and also who he was as a football player."

CELEBRATING 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF BEARS LANDING WALTER PAYTON

BY LARRY MAYER

"when i get through with chicago, they'll be loving me." – WALTER PAYTON

The Bears made history 50 years ago Tuesday, selecting superstar running back Walter Payton with the fourth overall pick in the 1975 NFL Draft.

Interestingly, the Bears won a coin flip with the Browns for the No. 4 choice. Cleveland selected defensive end Mack Mitchell at No. 5.

Payton played at tiny Jackson State, but he was not an unknown commodity entering the 1975 draft. The Mississippi native was a two-time first-team All-American who set the NCAA scoring record with 464 points, established nine school records and received votes for the Heisman Trophy.

"He wasn't any deep secret," then-Bears coach Jack Pardee said Jan. 28, 1975, the day Payton was drafted. "Everyone in the country knows about him."

Maybe so, but few imagined that Payton would become the NFL's all-time leading rusher and arguably the greatest player in Bears history. Then again, the man nicknamed "Sweetness" was convinced that he would enjoy a special career in the Windy City.

"When I get through with Chicago, they'll be loving me," Payton predicted the day he was drafted.

The next day, the Chicago Tribune speculated that "Payton's addition raised immediate doubt about the future of (incumbent running back) Carl Garrett with the Bears."

Heading into the draft, running back was considered the Bears' biggest need. Ken Grandberry had led the team in rushing in 1974 with just 475 yards and two touchdowns on 144 carries.

Many scouts felt that Texas A&I's Don Hardeman was the best runner available. But Hardeman was selected by the Houston Oilers with the 15th pick and rushed for only 1,460 yards and 11 touchdowns on 397 carries in five NFL seasons with the Oilers and Baltimore Colts.

The three players chosen ahead of Payton were quarterback Steve Bartkowski (Atlanta Falcons), defensive tackle Randy White (Dallas Cowboys) and guard Ken Huff (Colts).

The only Hall of Famers from the 1975 draft are Payton, White and defensive end Fred Dean, who was picked by the San Diego Chargers in the second round.

The Bears insisted that they would have selected Payton if they had the No. 1 pick. When the Colts chose Huff, Pardee revealed that "a nice cheer went up" in Chicago's draft room.

"We've been sweating it out all night," he said. "What happened is what we were hoping for. Had we been in Atlanta's spot, we'd have chosen Walter Payton. We thought that much of him."

Payton spent his entire 13-year NFL career with the Bears from 1975-87, missing just one game and retiring as the league's all-time leading rusher with 16,726 yards. He was voted to nine Pro Bowls—second to Mike Singletary's 10 in Bears history—set 27 team records and had his No. 34 retired.

Payton was a key member of the famed 1985 Bears, who will celebrate the 40th anniversary of their magical Super Bowl championship season this year.

SUPER BOWL SHUFFLE

The Most Indelible Shots from the Chicago Bears Dominant “Super Bowl XX” Victory

DON PIERSON, CHICAGO TRIBUNE

“This is as good as it gets. The Bears won the Super Bowl 46-10 in an awesome display of football encompassing all the joy and fury of an awesome season. Their destruction of the New England Patriots was so complete it went beyond Super Bowl proportions and recalled only their record 73-0 victory by the Bears in the 1940 NFL championship game. The Bears have a tradition that transcends Super Bowls and Sunday they ended years of frustration for their city and themselves and showed a nation they play better than they talk or sing.”

BERNIE LINCICOME, CHICAGO TRIBUNE

"No more tears. Only laughter. Tomorrow is a friend. A Chicago team can keep a promise. Mission accomplished. Say it was only a football game. Say it was the football game. It was more. It was redemption, it was vindication, it was a great civic aspirin. All the years, all the wait, all the alibis. Gone. Stomped into the lint of the Superdome, stuffed into the three-cornered hat of a Yankee imposter that drew the short straw in the Super Bowl, way down yonder, down on the levee, the day Chicago lived."

BOB VERDI, CHICAGO TRIBUNE

"In the end, their bite was even better than their bark. And they weren't just a bunch of hot dogs selling hamburgers. And that bit of shuffling they did a month ago was destiny, not a distraction. In this place that invented jazz, the fat lady sang early Sunday, before halftime. In this town with all the one-way streets, the Bears paved another Sunday. With only a roof separating them from a full moon, the best team in football, perhaps one of the best teams ever in football, won Super Bowl XX."

RAY SONS, CHICAGO SUNTIMES

"If heaven has cures for an old man's hips, George Halas surely must be dancing a jig upstairs. The Bears scored the most points in Super Bowl history, won by the largest margin, but this must be recorded as a defensive triumph, the finest performance by the best defensive team the Bears have had."

PAUL ZIMMERMAN, SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

"It will be many years before we see anything approaching the vision of hell that Chicago inflicted on the poor New England Patriots Sunday in Super Bowl XX. It was near perfect, an exquisite mesh of talent and system, defensive football carried to its highest degree. It was a great roaring wave that swept through the playoffs, gathering force and momentum, until it finally crashed home in New Orleans' Superdome in pro football's showcase game."

Football

9/17/20 – George Halas, representing the Decatur Staleys, meets with representatives of 11 other clubs at Ralph Hay's Hupmobile showroom in Canton, Ohio, forming the American Professional Football Association – which later became the NFL. Membership is set at $100.

1920 – The Staleys shut out 10 of 13 foes, losing only to the Chicago Cardinals (7-6 at Normal Park), and post a 10-1-2 record. Each player is paid $1,900 for the season.

1921 – A. E. Staley gives Halas the club with $5,000 to keep the Staleys name for the year. Decatur Staleys become Chicago Staleys, play in Cubs Park (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926), and win the APFA title with 9-1-1 record. Halas makes Dutch Sternaman his partner.

1/28/22 – Franchise renamed Chicago Bears.

11/27/22 – First Chicago player deal: Bears buy tackle Ed Healey's contract from the Rock Island Independents for $100—twice the going rate for a franchise that season.

11/22/25 – Harold "Red" Grange signs with Bears and pro football leaves its cradle. His agent, C.C. (Cash & Carry) Pyle, negotiates a $100,000 deal with the Bears. Halas takes the Bears and Grange on a coast-to-coast tour that sees the club play 19 games from Nov. 26 through Jan. 31 interrupted only by a two-week rest. The Bears post a 13-5-1 record on the trip.

11/26/25 – Grange's first game—36,000 see Bears and Cardinals tie 0-0 in Cubs Park. Grange held to 36 yards.

1/16/26 – Grange scores two TDs as the Bears impress a crowd of 70,000 in the LA Coliseum, beating the LA Tigers 17-7.

3/1/26 – Bears open offices at 111 W. Washington in Chicago.

1930s

1930 – After a 4-9-2 season in 1929, George Halas replaces himself as head coach with Ralph Jones. Jones posts a 24-10-7 record during his three seasons.

12/15/30 – Bears and Cardinals play football's first indoor game on an 80-yard field in Chicago Stadium. The exhibition aids unemployment; Bears win 9-7 before 10,000 fans.

11/15/31 – New Yorkers (including Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Mayor Jimmy Walker) in field boxes at $100 a seat watch Bears top Giants at Polo Grounds 12-6.

1932 – Franchise loses $18,000, prompting Dutch Sternaman to sell his half of the Bears to George Halas.

12/18/32 – Bronko Nagurski hits Red Grange with a two-yard TD pass and the Bears top the Portsmouth Spartans 9-0 for the NFL championship. The game was played before 11,198, indoors at Chicago Stadium on an 80-yard field.

1933 – George Halas returns as head coach and takes club out of town for training camp for the first time. University of Notre Dame is the host.

11/5/33 – Boston Redskins beat Bears, 10-0, ending Chicago's 16-game unbeaten string.

12/17/33 – Bears use rookie Jack Manders' accurate kicking for 11 points and defeat the Giants 23-21 in the NFL's first championship game.

1934 – Halas University, the Bears alumni association, begins. Annually Bear veterans return during season for Homecoming Weekend.

1934 – Bears hold training camp at Lane Tech High in Chicago.

8/31/34 – A classic is born as 79,432 watch the NFL champion Bears held to a scoreless tie by the first College All-Star team in a game sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities at Soldier Field.

12/2/34 – Rookie Beattie Feathers becomes first pro to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,004), leading the NFL.

12/9/34 – Undefeated Bears slip before Giants in NFL title tilt at Polo Grounds 30-13 before 35,059. With Chicago leading 10-3 at the half, NY dons basketball sneakers and scores 27 points.

1935 – Training camp is conducted at St. John's Military Academy in Delafield, Wisconsin.

1936 – Bears make future Hall of Famer Joe Stydahar, a tackle from West Virginia, their first draft pick ever.

12/12/37 – Bears win Western Division title but lose NFL Championship 28-21 to Redskins at Wrigley Field. Sammy Baugh hits 18 of 33 for 335 yards and three TDs. Jack Manders scores 15 of the Bears points. A Chicago player's share is $127.78.

7/24/39 – Future Hall of Famer Sid Luckman signs his first contract after being selected by the Bears with the second pick of the 1939 NFL draft.

1940s

12/8/40 – Ten Bears tally TDs as Chicago rips Washington 73-0 for the NFL title before 36,034 in D.C. The rout signals the beginning of pro football's modern era with the formal unveiling of the T-formation. Each player receives $873.

1941 – Bear Down, Chicago Bears, the Bears new fight song, is published.

12/14/41 – Bears and Packers agree their playoff game should be played to a "sudden death" finish in event of tie. NFL adopts plan 1/24/42.

12/21/41 – Bears throttle the New York Giants 37-9 for the NFL Championship.

1942 – George Halas departs in October after five games for the US Navy. The Bears win their remaining six games to finish the season 11-0 and advance to the title game but lose to Washington, 14-6.

1943 – Hunk Anderson and Luke Johnsos co-coach the wartime Bears for the next three seasons, compiling a 15-11-2 record.

11/14/43 – Sid Luckman becomes the first pro to pass for 400+ yards in a game, scorching the Giants for 433 yards and seven TDs.

12/26/43 – The Bears blast Washington 41-21 in Wrigley Field for the NFL title before 34,320 fans. Sid Luckman throws five TD passes (2 each to Harry Clark and Dante Magnani and one to Jim Benton). Bronko Nagurski scores his last Bear TD, a 3-yard run.

12/15/46 – With George Halas around for the full season, the Bears whip the Giants 24-14 before a record NFL title crowd of 58,346 in the Polo Grounds. After opening with a 21-yard TD pass to Ken Kavanaugh, Sid Luckman gets the winning score.

12/19/47 – Bears make the first trade for a draft choice, then select QB Bobby Layne in the 1948 draft.

12/11/49 – Johnny Lujack sets NFL passing record with 468 yards against the Cardinals.

1950s

12/17/50 – Bears and Rams tie for Western Division title with 9-3 marks but Rams trip Bears in LA 24-14 to break the tie.

10/18/53 – QB Willie Thrower comes in for QB George Blanda, becoming the first African American quarterback to play in the NFL.

1956 – Halas leaves coaching for a third time. Paddy Driscoll gets the position.

12/30/56 – Giants, with their sneakers again, trounce Chicago 47-7 before 56,836 in Yankee Stadium for NFL title.

11/2/58 – Bears and Rams establish NFL attendance record drawing 90,833 paid (100,470 actual) in the LA Coliseum. Rams win 41-35.

1960s

10/22/61 – Bears destroy the scorching 49er shotgun formation 31-0 with Bill George playing middle guard and the defensive line stunting.

12/29/63 – Bears intercept five YA Tittle passes and capture NFL title from Giants 14-10 in Wrigley Field before 45,801 and closed-circuit TV. QB Bill Wade gets both TDs on two- and one-yard runs. Each Bear earns $5,899.

1964 – Flanker Johnny Morris establishes NFL record of 93 catches.

11/28/64 – Bears set standard for draft by selecting LB Dick Butkus and RB Gale Sayers in first round.

1965 – Rookie Sayers bursts into pro football with an NFL-record 22 TDs.

12/12/65 – Gale Sayers scores six TDs against 49ers.

1966 – Gale Sayers sets NFL combined yards record with 2,440.

5/27/68 – The all-time winningest coach in football history, George Halas, retires from coaching after 40 seasons with 324 wins, 151 defeats, 31 ties.

1970s

3/19/70 – George Halas elected president of the National Football Conference as NFL-AFL merge.

6/16/70 – Bear running back Brian Piccolo dies of cancer. Club establishes Piccolo Fund and five decades later the Fund continues to support cutting-edge cancer research at Rush University Medical Center and Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center..

12/13/70 – Bears say goodbye to Wrigley Field by trouncing Green Bay 35-17. They will make Soldier Field their home in 1971.

9/19/71 – The Bears open at Soldier Field by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 17-15.

9/12/74 – Jim Finks joins Bears as Vice President and General Manager after serving as Vikings' GM and NFL Management Council Advisor.

12/17/74 – After three seasons and a record of 11-30-1, Abe Gibron departs as head coach.

12/31/74 – Former NFL star LB Jack Pardee is named Bears head coach, the first non-Bear to hold the job.

7/12/75 – Bears open training camp at Lake Forest College after 31 seasons in Rensselaer, Indiana.

11/20/77 – En route to leading the NFL in rushing with a Bear record 1,852 yards on the season, Walter Payton dashes through the Vikings for a then-NFL record 275 yards. Bears win 10-7 at Soldier Field.

12/18/77 – A 28-yard FG by Bob Thomas with :09 left in overtime gives Bears a 12-9 win over the Giants, a 9-5 record, a six-game win streak, and their first playoff spot in 14 years.

GEORGE S. HALAS

FEBRUARY 2, 1895 – OCTOBER 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team as the Decatur Staleys.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award—the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian. After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PLAYING CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years, until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Cubs Park (11/4/23) (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s.

COACHING CAREER: Three times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and Heartley "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities through '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57.

Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships. During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,154 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the world championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, APZ and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark in 1993. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1925 – DECEMBER 16, 1979

George S. "Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. He was also the first general manager in team history, serving in that capacity from 1963-74. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just five presidents in the franchise history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by Michael McCaskey, Ted Phillips and current team president Kevin Warren. His numerous contributions on a league level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Mugs learned football at a young age, serving as a ballboy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. Mugs is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

MICHAEL B. MCCASKEY

DECEMBER 11, 1943 – MAY 16, 2020

Michael B. McCaskey joined the family business in 1983, when he succeeded his grandfather, George S. Halas, as President & CEO and held that position until 1999 when he became the team's chairman. Under McCaskey's leadership, the Bears had eight playoff seasons, claimed six NFC Central division titles and were crowned Super Bowl XX Champions. Following the 1985 Super Bowl championship, his peers voted him NFL Executive of the Year. Michael also served as Chairman of the Board of the Bears from 1999-2011. In the spring of 1997, under Michael's guidance, the Bears moved from the original Halas Hall on the campus of Lake Forest College to a new state-of-the-art home and where the team still resides today. Michael also was a co-founder of the team's charitable arm Bears Care in 2005, which has since granted nearly $25 million to over 100 agencies throughout the Chicagoland community through targeted programs supporting education, youth athletics, medical research and health awareness programs focusing on breast and ovarian cancer.

EDWARD W. MCCASKEY

APRIL 27, 1919 – APRIL 8, 2003

Edward (Ed) W. McCaskey served as an executive with the Bears for 36 years, serving as Chairman Emeritus of the club from 1999 until his death in 2003. He was the team's second Chairman of the Board, succeeding team founder George Halas in 1983 following 17 years as the team's Vice President and Treasurer. McCaskey married Halas' only daughter, Virginia, in 1943 and joined the team at Halas' request in 1967.

McCaskey was a popular figure within the NFL and was referred to by many as the conscience of the League, as well as a sounding board for many of its leaders. He contributed to numerous charitable and civic organizations on behalf of the Bears and served as the guiding force behind the Brian Piccolo Fund.

NOW IS OUR MOMENT

2025 Walk to End Alzheimer's
Lincoln Park – Chicago
October 4, 2025

Look for other Illinois Walks.

Now is the moment we've been waiting for.
With new treatments emerging in the fight against Alzheimer's and all other dementia, now is the time for hope.
But not the time to stop.

Help us keep the momentum going in your community at the Alzheimer's Association Walk to End Alzheimer's®, the world's largest fundraiser to fight the disease.

It's always been easier for me to help others
than to help myself

As a Veteran, when someone raises their hand for help, you're often one of the first ones to respond. But it's also okay to get help for yourself. Maybe you want or need assistance with employment, stress, finances, mental health or finding the right resources. No matter what it is, you earned it. And there's no better time than right now to ask for it. Don't wait. Reach out.
